

Child Evangelism Fellowship, Inc®

Every Child. Every Nation. Every Day

Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF®) is a worldwide Bible-centered organization composed of believers whose purpose is to evangelize boys and girls with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to establish (disciple) them in the Word of God and in the local church for Christian living.

In 1937, at 60 years of age, Jesse Irvin Overholtzer, enabled by God, founded CEF, now the largest evangelistic outreach to children around the world. The first recorded teacher training institute was held in 1945.

Child Evangelism Fellowship has many ministries for children, but the primary ones are the Bible clubs, Good News Club® and 5-Day Club®. These fast paced one-hour events occur in neighborhood settings such as homes, backyards, schools, apartment complexes, and community centers around the world. These programs are designed to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to children on their level in their environment.

CEF also offers fairs, camping, open-air, and internet ministries for children around the world. Other family ministry outreaches include military bases and prisons.

Many resources, including curriculum, children's videos, teacher training, summer ministries and more, are available at cefonline.com or by calling (636) 456-4321 (for USA ministries - ext. 2050).

Parents, if you're concerned about the online influences your children encounter, here's a SAFE, FREE Christian video platform for kids. You'll find weekly additions of Bible focused content, music videos, quizzes, and much more.
